Alex at Taralga Exhibition 12 June 2023

PRESIDENT'S SAY

Hello Everyone,

Congratulations to all the members who sold at the Taralga exhibition. There were a lot of paintings and artworks sold. As usual, it was a very good exhibition with large numbers of people going through and buying.

Hopefully we can make our Annual Art Prize just as good or better this year. I am sure if all the members pull together we can make it work, so come to the monthly exhibition meetings we will be having between now and the middle of September and help.

I hope to see plenty of our art society members at the AGM to be held in the Goulburn Workers Club on 22nd July.

Happy painting.

Helen

THE AGM

Please advise Helen De Jonge if you are intending to attend the AGM as this will assist with catering for the light lunch.

Please be prepared to nominate for a position on the executive or committee. None of us own these positions and it's most inspiring to see more members take part in the running of our organisation. Indeed, the same members should not feel they have to hold the positions year after year. The more members prepared to do these jobs the better. Outgoing executive are always prepared to advise and assist members new to the positions. This is a very important meeting and we trust that many members will attend.

EDITORIAL

With warm clothes and two small heaters going, the 10 members plus a visitor who became a new member survived the June meeting. Luckily, the day wasn't one of the coldest ones that we have had lately.

It appears that we probably won't find out what the council intends to do with the Old Council Depot until later in the year so we are faced with our 4th winter during which we can't make good use of our rented premises. Let us hope there won't be a 5th winter for us to endure!

Of course there are days when it is not quite so cold, so members should remember they may always come along to make use of The Art Studio on any day or evening of the week.

Thank you Hans and Lesley for your submission.

WELCOME TO NEW MEMBER

The members at the June meeting were pleased to see that our visitor, Sue Pearson, wished to join and welcomed her as a new member to the GDAS. Sue brought along a beautifully executed portrait as a sample of her works. We trust that we'll see you as a regular participant in our painting days, meetings and workshops, Sue.

TO GDAS MEMBERS: ACCESSING THE ART STUDIO

If you have a key, that makes it easy - any day, any time.

For those members who don't have a key and wish to visit The Art Studio, you can check with one of the following to see if they are coming or to see if they can let you in or to request to borrow a key. If you borrow one then you must return it to that member on the same day. Members who you can ask: Susan Harris 0415 531 992, Michael Sherriff 0401 250 605, Lesley Whitten 0417 240 595.

Things to remember: Write your name and date on the Sign In Sheet; hang the OPEN sign outside beside the door; leave the studio, kitchen, washbasin and toilet clean and tidy; on leaving put the OPEN sign back on the reception desk; ensure the doors are closed and locked; lock the gate unless there are people in the other rented spaces; return the key if you borrowed it.
