

GDAS Workshops - Payment & Refund Policy

Workshops run by GDAS are highly anticipated and popular, yet they require a minimum number of participants to be viable. We have found that 10 is the optimal number, however, more may be accommodated at the discretion of the tutor. If numbers fall short, GDAS reserves the right to cancel the workshop.

We understand that some participants may want to attend for one day or part days for various reasons. We warmly welcome such participants and endeavour to be flexible but we cannot offer discounts for limited attendance.
